next Saturday night in the Horse Show building. Though unable to score in the point events, both the Blues and Richmond College feel that the athletes representing Richmond abroad performed most creditably, and will be able to do better things on the home track.

Those who attend the meet Saturday night—and practically everybody in Richmond will be on hand—will be given an opportunity to see some of the best and fastest track men in the country compete. Every college and university in this section will be represented while many of the stars north of the Mason and Dixion line will be sent to show what they can do.

The Richmond Amateur Athletic Federation will be represented by many relay teams, while the Y. M. C. A. will enter men in the open events. Altogether it will be by far the most comprehensive meet ever held in Richmond.

Some grading remains to be done, but the dirt for this purpose is on hand and will be distributed where needed as quickly as the large force at work, can handle it. The infield, thanks to the natural lay of the land, needs little worfk, though there is a bump between the plicher's box and third place which hopes to have it graded to suit his ideas. The grass has been cut in several feet around third and first base, making the appearance of the infield more nearly conform to what the players, as well as the people, desire. In the grandstand marked improvements have been made, notably in the entrances and exists. There will be no more crowding. EVEN BREAK FOR FORM PLAYERS

Favorites and Long Shots Split on Division of Sports on Juarez Track.

Juarez, Mexico, March 3 .- The form players broke even this afternoon when first choices accounted for half the card. The long paid ones to score were Paw, Rio Pecos and Deerfoot, which won their respective races after being given little consideration by the speculators.

Seacliff won the mile race, which port. Burlingame kept him within striking distance of Dun Graggan, the gallop. Suffragist got the place, with Zoroaster third.

Descendant, winner of the second race, was the medium of a big plunge, his price being hammered down to 11 to 5 from an opening of 5 to 1. Summaries.
